nett and his co-workers.

"Damaged Goods' has created more favorable comment from the clergy and social workers than any other play ever produced in America. The play deals with the social evil in a manner so frank and so earnest that the subject matter is robbed of all sensationalism and the play makes its appeal, not to the prurient minded but to the thinking citizens of every community.

Richard Bennett will make his advent as a star in Washington at the Columbia in the role of Monsieur Dupont, the young man who marries pont, the young man who marries against the orders of his physician. It is a characterization marked by great arnestness and power, and shows the actor in an entirely new atmosphere.

Poll's Theater announces for next week a revival of "The Right of Way," Eugene Presby's dramatization of Six Gilbert Parker's novel. The origina Klaw and Erlanger production has Klaw and Erlanger production has been leased; Theodore Roberts, who was starred in the original cast, has been engaged to play "Joe Portugals, his grea est role, and Richard Buhler, a famous leading man, will join the Poll Players to make his first appearance as "Beauty Steele," the role created by Guy Standing.

SCENE FROM "ARIZONA."

The most important musical event of the year took place in Baltimore Friday night, when Titta Ruffo, the world's greatest barytone, appeared for his only performance south of Philadeiphia during the year, with the Chicago Grand Opera Company at the Lyric Theater. The opera was Verdi's "Rigoletto," in which Ruffo is considered at his best. The cast included Giorgini, the Italian tenor, who was well received with Tetruzzini last year, and Mme. Alice Zeppilli. Holmes Announces Travelogue Dates

Under the direction of H. W. Weber, the Rebew Orchestra gave its first public rehearsal Monday night, in the lecture room of the Keller Memorial Church. Miss Josephine T. Gould, soprano, and A. W. Jett, tenor, were the soloists, while Miss Richardson and Miss Jeffries were accompanists. Miss Gould's songs, "Will o' the Wisp" and "I Hear a Thrush at Evening," were splendidly sung, while Mr. Jett made a distinct hit with his "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling" and "At Dawning." The orchestra numbers were well given. separate topics on as many different dates. Beginning Sunday.
